STEPHEN G. PEARSE

Stephen has been a proven leader in the IT and Telecom space for over 22 years. He currently manages investment firm Yucatan Rock, Inc. and sits on the boards of Intrusic and Emerson Hospital. Most notably Stephen was CEO of Cyras Systems which sold to Ciena Corporation in a deal valued at $2.7B. Before starting his entrepreneurial career, Stephen was EVP and General Manager of Nortel Networks' Internet/Telecom Business Group, where he also managed the merger between Bay Networks and Nortel Networks. Previously, Stephen served as Senior Vice President of Engineering, Operations and IT at Time Warner Telecom, and Vice President of Technology Planning at Sprint.